I call my mother often to thank her for things like braces and college. I am fortunate to have exceptional parents. My sister and I grew up in a home in which we were sure that we were loved and well cared-for on all fronts. Not only did we receive encouragement and help to achieve our goals, but we also received support in ways that helped us build successful lives. They paid for braces; they sent us to college. They answered our phone calls when we needed advice. They listened to us when we needed to talk. My mother is gifted with grace and kindness, and her example of generosity and selflessness helped us to know how to be well-adjusted adults today. For those gifts, I often give my deepest, heart-felt thanks.

The mothering in my life is not contained in my family of origin. When I began college, the chaplain at Emory became another mother for me as I was discovering who I was and how God was calling me. During the summers of my college years, I worked at Camp Glisson. In my first summer, my direct supervisor, only a few years older than I, mothered me as I taught and cared for other people’s children all summer long—quite an exhausting job! Plenty of friends I have had through the years have been mothers to me, no matter their age. Thanking all of them, my mother and all the others who have mothered me, is an essential part of keeping those precious relationships healthy and growing.

Do you thank your mothers (biological and those we choose) regularly for all that they have given to you? The Biblical imperative to give thanks to the Lord always and for all things should spill over into every part of our lives. Gratitude inspires more gratitude. The more thankful you are, the more you will find for which to give thanks.

Thank your mothers for braces and college, kindness and grace, encouragement and challenge. They have given you reflections of the grace of God, loving you through all things and calling you to repentance and forgiveness. They have called for the best in you and will love you forever. And in their love, you grow and change and become the person God has made you to be.

Happy Mothers’ Day

*A Modern Affirmation

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now declare:

We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, power, and love, whose mercy is over all his works, and whose will is ever directed to his children’s good. We believe in Jesus Christ, Son of God and Son of man, the gift of the Father’s unfailing grace, the ground of our hope, and the promise of our deliverance from sin and death. We believe in the Holy Spirit as the divine presence in our lives, whereby we are kept in perpetual remembrance of the truth of Christ, and find strength and help in time of need. We believe that this faith should manifest itself in the service of love as set forth in the example of our blessed Lord, to the end that the kingdom of God may come upon the earth. Amen

A Morning Prayer and The Lord’s Prayer

Rev. Allen Grady

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Church’s One Foundation

Chancel Choir, Brass, and Organ

arr. Paul Manz
Stanza 1 Congregation and Choir
The Church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the Word.
From heav’n he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life He died.

Stanza 2, 3 and 4 Chancel Choir
Stanza 5 Congregation and Choir
Yet she on earth hath union with God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
O blessed heav’nly chorus! Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee.

Graduate Sunday, May 15

On Sunday, May 15, 2016, Oak Grove will honor its high school graduates during the 11 a.m. service. The graduates will be recognized, and the sermon will be geared toward the graduates. Our 8:30 and 9:35 a.m. services will be our regular worship services.

PENTECOST SUNDAY at Oak Grove, May 22

featuring dancers from the Atlanta Ballet

Oak Grove will celebrate Pentecost on May 22. Admittedly, our celebration is one week later than the other parts of the Christian world, but the wait will be worth it. Our Pentecost Sunday worship will be an unforgettable experience.

We will welcome dancers from the Atlanta Ballet, as we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit. Mark your calendars and plan to be in worship on Sunday, May 22, for Oak Grove’s observance of Pentecost.

Contribution Statements

The first quarter contribution statements were emailed on Friday, April 22 to the head of household email address we have on file. If we do not have an email address, you should have received your statement in the mail. The pass code to open your statement is the last 4 digits of your phone number.

If you have any questions, please email Pam Reynolds (preynolds@ogumc.org).

Thank You for Supporting Camp Sparrowwood!

Thank you Oak Grove for supporting the Camp Sparrowwood Mission Project this spring! Our children created art and shared photos that were made into note cards. With the sale of the cards and a few generous donations, we raised $1,175.00 for the Sparrowwood Scholarship Fund. Money raised will cover registration for two campers this summer! Thanks to Valerie Harrison and the Children’s Ministry Team for your efforts to make this project a success!

Go Forth Sunday School Class

The Go Forth Sunday School class had the pleasure of hosting a play date and baby shower for our newest refugee friends. Thank you to all the church members who generously contributed gifts to their baby shower. The family is very appreciative!
Sunday School Schedule
Please join us for Sunday School again on Sunday, May 8, 2016 at 9:35 a.m. in the Gym as we continue exploring the Bible from beginning to end with The Story.

Youth Fellowship Schedule
Reminder - No Youth Fellowship on Sunday, May 8, in observance of Mother’s Day.

Senior Send-Off—May 15
Special Youth Fellowship

On Sunday, May 15, we will have a special Youth Fellowship Senior Send-Off Service from 8 to 9 p.m. We will meet in Fellowship Hall at 6 p.m. for our regular Youth Fellowship dinner and activities. At 8:00 p.m., we will have a special message, Senior blessing, and communion service. We will have carpool at 8 p.m. for those students who need to leave at the regular time. It will be a meaningful night! Please contact us if you have any questions.

Atlanta Boy Choir Sings at Glenn Memorial United Methodist, May 13
The Grammy-Award-Winning Atlanta Boy Choir, currently appearing in this season’s blockbuster movie, Captain America: Civil War will present a concert at Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church on Friday evening, May 13 at 7:30 p.m. This concert precedes The Choir’s international tour of British Columbia in June. The 85 boys and forty men who comprise this choir are heard throughout the world in many great concert halls and with famous orchestras. It is now in its sixtieth season under the direction of the founder, Maestro Fletcher Wolfe.

Members of Oak Grove can get tickets which normally are $20 for the discounted rate of $15 by calling 404-378-0064, emailing info@atlantaboychoir.org, or going online (www.atlantaboychoir.org/tickets).

How to Submit Articles to the Oak Grove News
Please be reminded that Thursday 12 p.m. is the deadline for information that you would like to add to the Oak Grove News. This will enable your information to appear in the following week’s bulletin. Send items to oakgrovenews@ogumc.org. Thank you!

Scholarship Applications
Applications for the 2016 Oak Grove Memorial Scholarship are currently being accepted in the church office. Oak Grove UMC should receive the application, transcripts, and letters of recommendation by Monday, June 6, 2016. Application forms are available online (www.ogumc.org), or they may be sent to the church via email. Please contact Dale Smith with your request, (404-636-7558 or Dsmith@ogumc.org).

Sonshine Camp
for Special Needs Children
June 6–10, 2016; 8:30 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.
Ages: Rising Pre-K through completed 5th grade.
Our goal is to have loads of fun and fellowship as we make new friends in a safe and nurturing environment. Each camper will be paired with a trained adult or youth “Angel Buddy” as they rotate through stations to enjoy music, arts and crafts, recreation, and snacks. A nurse will be on site each day along with an entertaining surprise guest! Cost: $75 per child. Register Online at www.ogumc.org. A few scholarships are available. Questions? Contact Cathy Ethridge, Camp Director (cathyethridge@comcast.net).

Counseling Available through Oak Grove
Going through a difficult time in your life? We can help! Oak Grove works with Care and Counseling Center of Georgia to offer counseling. Financial assistance is available.
Contact Dr. Amy Morgan (404-636-7558, ext. 210 or amorgan@ogumc.org) for more information.

Grief Support Group
Grief Sharing for anyone grieving significant loss
Tuesdays, 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in room 219
Led by: Stephanie Foxman, Licensed Professional Counselor. There is no charge and newcomers are always welcome.

Oak Grove’s Financial Assistance Policy
Oak Grove is a caring church that provides assistance to people in need through a variety of missions and community partners. We contribute heavily to the Toco Hills Community Alliance (THCA) and other helping organizations, and refer people who come to us to those agencies. We do not have the proper screening systems or the available funds to handle the volume of requests we will get if we begin distributing funds at church. THCA and others have the systems in place to screen clients and administer aid in the most helpful ways.

If someone approaches you for financial assistance, please refer them to the Toco Hills Community Alliance (404-325-0977 – this number is printed on a sign on the Portico door). You can also suggest they call the United Way Helpline by dialing 211. If someone needs non-financial assistance, please have them call the church office during office hours. Please refrain from handing out money to people in our church parking lot or entrances and refer them instead to THCA.

As you may know, OGUMC kicked off a new greeter program in February. We asked greeter Vince Meglio a few questions about his experiences:

When and how did you join OGUMC?
Hollie and I joined in 2007. We visited several churches, but we immediately felt at home at Oak Grove.

Would you please share a memory from your first visit to OGUMC?
Betty and Mack Coleman and Lisa Bowling were some of the first people who made us feel welcomed. The genuineness of their invitation to worship was very appealing.

What do you like about being a greeter?
Greeting energizes me and puts me in the right frame of mind for worship. Hopefully, I pass that positive energy to someone who’s visiting us for the first time. I want to convey that Oak Grove is not just God’s house, it’s their house too.

Thank you, Vince! We appreciate all of our greeter volunteers and would love to have more. If you are interested in this once a month, 30 minute volunteer opportunity, please contact Amity Farrar (404-432-3465 or amityfarrar@yahoo.com).
United Methodist Men (UMM) News

Did You Know?

If you are a male member of Oak Grove United Methodist Church, you are already a member of the Oak Grove United Methodist Men’s Group. Nothing to sign up for, no dues (we pay them), nothing, nada. Just show up every second Monday of the month. We will even pick you up if you need a ride. The meeting is free, unless you would like a world class Novis and staff prepared dinner for $8.00. We have wonderful speakers and programs each month from local politicians, sports personalities, county leaders, and a variety of local interests. Try us, you’ll like us. The fellowship is fantastic, and it’s the best way to meet new friends and get together with old ones. Remember we meet the second Monday of each month except June when we go to the Gwinnett Braves and July when we are on vacation. Come join us. If you need further information, please contact Steve Simmons (404-434-6677 or tepsimmons@hotmail.com).

Thank you, Oak Grove!

Help Build Hope was a huge success! Thanks to everyone who prayed, donated, and volunteered!

Saturday, June 11, 2016 – 7:05 p.m.

Join the United Methodist Men on Saturday, June 11, as we travel to Cool Ray Field and enjoy a night of Gwinnett Braves baseball. Game time is 7:05 p.m. and tickets are $11 each. Transportation is provided. We will leave the church parking lot at 5:45 p.m. The deadline for ordering tickets is Tuesday, May 31. To order tickets and for additional information, contact Steve Simmons (404-434-6677 or tepsimmons@hotmail.com).
