Young Adults Conference Room 207

A new, discussion-based class of post-graduate, young adults who are “30ish” — some married and some single.

The New Class Room 233

A new Sunday School class focusing on building relationships through engaging in meaningful discussion and practical life-application of the Bible, faith, and community. Facilitators are Christie & Michael Lo and Allison & Bill Berg.

The Teaching Class The Parlor (1st floor)

A new, teaching-based class for those who are new to the church or wanting to try out Sunday School. This class will be seasonal: meeting in January and March of 2019 and our first series is “4 Habits of Highly Practical Christians.”

Sunday Download Room 131

Parents of toddlers, preschoolers, and elementary-aged children. Discussion-based class focuses on both Biblical and topical studies.

Go Forth Room 239

Young couples from newlyweds to married for 10 years and many with infants or toddlers. We choose topics of interest and actively participate in discussions based on the application of Christian beliefs in everyday life.

New Hope Room 238

Couples with and without children range in age from 30s to 50s. We follow a discussion format of various topics taught by members of the class or by occasional guest speakers. Optional small groups meet for study and fellowship.

Christian Fellowship Room 201

Adults with and without children in high school, college, and beyond. We utilize the expertise of a variety of class members and guest teachers for the curriculum. Topics have included: biblical books, differences and similarities with other denominations and religions, and studies of individuals, groups, and events.

Discoverers Room 203

Adults in their 30s, 40s, and 50s. We offer a discussion-based learning environment, where members read scripture and discuss the meaning and relevance to their day-to-day lives in the home and workplace.

New Vision Room 102

Adults who are single or single at church. Led by class members and guest speakers, we study the Bible and various aspects of the faith, often utilizing United Methodist curriculum. Members stay in touch through newsletters and social events as they develop a new vision of faith in God.

The Renn Class Room 205

Single adults and couples, aged 50 – 70. We share in Bible-based lessons. Occasionally, the class chooses to study an outside text, such as C.S. Lewis’s Mere Christianity. The emphasis is on discerning and living out God’s will. Class members rotate the teaching responsibilities.

Hope Room 104

Couples and singles, aged 60+, primarily “empty nesters.” We have a variety of teachers and studies, occasionally for a series of several weeks and on a variety of topics.

Faith Room 101

Senior adult who are married or single. This supportive and close-knit class has grown steadily over the years, and continues to stay in touch by phone and mail even when members in ill health are unable to attend. The class’s curriculum is the Adult Bible Study, International Lesson Series, led by various teachers on a rotating basis.

Seekers Room 103

Adults aged 55-85+, including couples, widows, divorced persons, and singles. Known for our robust opening songs, we enjoy discussion-based lessons taught by a rotation of excellent teachers. The caring individuals in this class are very active in communicating with members in need.
